The lessee of the German Centre apartment is obliged to inform all the foreigners (including staffs, visitors, relatives etc.) residing in the apartment, to timely comply with this obligation.

2.4.1 Regardless of the length of stay and type of visa, any foreigner who falls into the following categories must apply his registration on time:

- application for a working visa
- application for residence permit
- any change in the domicile of origin or of residence within China

Documents required:

- a valid passport with a valid visa
- an accommodation confirmation issued by German Centre

2.4.2 Re-registration is necessary for any of the change listed below:

- the residence place within China
- the passport / visa number
- the type of visa

Documents required:

- a valid passport
- a copy of the previous temporary registration

Note: Regardless of the visa validity, holders of visa type F (business) and L (tourist) are required to register at the police station every time when they re-enter China.

German Centre will assist the foreigners, who officially reside in the serviced apartments, to apply and obtain the "Registration of Temporary Residence". Upon completion, the original document will be returned to the applicant.

Foreigners who violate the above mentioned regulations are required to go to the police station in person and will be served a written warning or fined from RMB 50 to RMB 500 respectively.
